

ESSENTIAL CIVIL WAR CURRICULUM

---

Michael B. Ballard is Professor Emeritus of Libraries at Mississippi State University. He retired from the MSU Library at the end of 2012 after 30 years as an University Archivist, Coordinator of Political Papers, and an Associate Editor in the Ulysses S. Grant Presidential Library. He has authored 8 books, co-authored another, and has been co-editor of 5 books. He received his doctoral degree in history at MSU in 1983. He is continuing to research and write Civil War history, his most recent book being Grant at Vicksburg: The General and the Siege. He lives in Ackerman, MS, with his wife Jan, and three cats.