

ESSENTIAL CIVIL WAR CURRICULUM

Frank P. Varney earned his undergraduate degree at William Paterson University and his MA and Ph.D. at Cornell University. He regularly takes student groups to historic sites — especially Civil War battlefields — and makes frequent speaking appearances before Civil War roundtables, historical societies, and other interested groups; he has also been the keynote speaker at several veteran’s memorials,. He currently teaches US and Classical History at Dickinson State University of North Dakota, where he is also the director of the Theodore Roosevelt Honors Leadership Program and the winner of the 2013 Outstanding Faculty Member Award (voted by students) and 2013 Distinguished Professor Award. He is the author of General Grant and the Rewriting of History: How the Destruction of General William S. Rosecrans Influenced Our Understanding of the Civil War (El Dorado Hills, CA: Savas-Beatie, 2103).
